

Dear Colleague:

Thank you for your interest in the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Society. A constituent Society of the American Psychoanalytic Association, the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Society (MPS) is a professional organization comprised of individuals interested in the study, practice, research, education, and other applications of psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy.

Activities of the Society include outreach to the professional community through monthly seminars, weekly classes, and process groups in which you may already be involved. We provide the Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Training Program, lectures, and discussion groups. In addition, the Society and its members promote and support the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Institute, a training facility dedicated to training future Psychoanalysts.

As a member of MPS, you will receive early notification to a variety of lectures, study groups and seminars on psychoanalytic thinking, and invitations to participate in ongoing educational opportunities. You will be welcomed to participate with the Society by serving on committees which promote psychoanalytic thinking in the community.

All members of the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Society are given access to the American Psychoanalytic Association's PEPweb, which offers you Internet access to search, research, read, and print papers for your personal educational use. The PEPweb literature includes 18 psychoanalytic journals, twenty- three classic psychoanalytic books, and Freud's complete correspondence with Abraham, Ferenczi, Fliess, Jones, and Jung. For complete information regarding this benefit, please refer to the following link: http://www.p-e-p.org/universities\_new.htm

I hope you will apply for membership so that you can enjoy affiliation with this stellar group of psychoanalytically informed professionals. Dues are $125 for Affiliate Members and $500 for Full Members who have completed psychoanalytic training. Enclosed you will find an application for membership. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the MPSI office at (612) 200-4141. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Juliann Miller

Mission Statement of the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Society

The mission of the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Society (MPS) is to provide psychoanalytically informed educational services to the community at large, the professional community, and its own members and to provide for the collegial affiliation of its members. Educational services include psychoanalytically oriented training programs for clinicians, such as training in adult psychotherapy.

MPS shall support and facilitate the development of the Minnesota Psychoanalytic Institute. MPS may undertake joint sponsorship of educational activities with MPI and other psychoanalytically informed organizations.
